Preface

The biblical poetry is an important tool that the sacred authors utilized in the Holy Bible.

It makes God's messages, clearer and more effective in our lives.

We, at the RCIA, (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults and teenagers) have studied some of the biblical poetries and were challenged to create our own poems based on the Salvation History.

This booklet presents the poems of the RCIA students as part of their learning of the first part of the RCIA contents. I, as a teacher, have compiled them and have included my own poem as well.

For final consideration, I also present some of the activities the students performed as part of their learning by providing service to the Church through helping other classes, such as Catechism and Pre-Catechism classes.

I want to express my deep gratitude to Jesus and His Church. Because He has provided me the opportunity to teach these young adults.

A special thanks to my family as well as to the students' parents for their great example and incentive to these fantastic students.

My answer to my Lord

by Teacher Janislene

My life started by Jesus's dream

My family received me as Jesus's planned

I have grown in faith by Jesus's teachings

His Church, my community, Jesus gave to me

Through the Sacraments, I receive strength to fulfil Jesus's mission for me

An invite I receive from Jesus:

A collaboration to Jesus's salvation of brothers and sisters

By the wisdom received from the Holy Spirit, given by Jesus

My Yes to Jesus remains forever!

Changing for You

by Emanuele

We are sorry, our Lord
Because You set us into this world with all your love, Yet we did not trust in You
So, we sinned against You
But because You so loved us,
You sent your only Son to us through incarnation
And He sacrificed himself for us
So that our sins can be forgiven
And because of this Lord,
I am going to change myself,
And I am going to follow the footsteps,
Of our Savior Jesus,
So, I may follow Your Word,
Know You
Serve You, And Love You

Until the End with Jesus

by Maria Eduarda

JESUS was condemned to death, and he carries his cross
until the end,
JESUS suffers and
fall three times,
but despite that he carries the cross until the end,

Jesus was betrayed even by trusted friends
he suffered,
nailed, and humiliated.

Jesus carries his cross until the
end for us, and Jesus helps you carry your cross
every day,

Jesus loves you
and always will.

Amen.

Easter Poem

by Kaleb

Easter is an important event

The most important in fact

It is when Jesus died on the cross

For our sins

And raised on the third day

We celebrate it every first Sunday after the

the first ecclesiastical full moon that occurs on or after March 21st

We celebrate it with joy!

Poem of Salvation

by Keegan

A grand plan worthy of all praise: How God saves the world

Adam and Eve, who were brought by God, into the world

They were completely free

But they didn't trust

So, they ate from the prohibit tree

To sin, they had to adjust

But Jesus became man

And God's plan proceeds

To save all of humanity

And beat all sin and satan

There is only one way to bridge our relationship with God.
Through Jesus.

The Salvation History

by Michael

God puts people on the world to love, to understand and to serve Him.

God, then created Adam and Eve.

They now created the sin because disobeyed God

Consequently, being out of garden Eden,

Adam and Eve initiated the original sin.

Someone needs to re-connect God to His people:

Jesus came and reconnected us.

This is why Jesus is true God and true man.

Final considerations
